My time at Finch Hattons is best described as the epitome of luxury with a touch of class with this being the perfect setting for a safari experience like no other. With nature at her finest, decadence and luxury meet the African bush, in the diverse eco-system of Tsavo West National Park in Kenya, where you will be treated like royalty from the yesteryears and enjoy safari experience like you could never have imagined possible.

Harpreet; Finch Hattons Guest

Mahali Mzuri camp lived up to our expectations. Had all the creature comforts we like but in an amazing tented accommodation. The staff were excellent and very caring and helpful. The food was to a very high standard and most of all, our one to one safari/game driver 'Levi' was outstanding. All in all, highly recommended in every department.
